

Sample Railway Fares for Scotland 2010

These sample fares are provided for convenience to give an idea of travel costs. Thousands of fare combinations are available, so check at the time of booking for the particular journey you are interested in.

Children's fares are available for almost all ticket types and are usually charged at 50% of the adult value for rail tickets. A family railcard gives additional savings for both adults and children in the group.

Advance tickets are valid on specific trains only and are non refundable. Off Peak tickets are valid on any off peak services and allow a break of journey, while Anytime tickets are the most expensive and allow travel on any train, and permit breaks of journey.

Railcard holders will receive a discount on all of these fares so long as you have your Railcard with you when booking and during your journey.
